P1

Once upon a time, three little pigs were born. Although they're triplets, they have different personalities and have different thoughts.

P2

The big brother is called Abby, he is quite lazy and lacks interest in reading.

P3

The second brother is called Toby, he is outgoing but careless.

P4

The youngest brother is called Bobby, he is the cutest and the smartest; he can always focus on what is happening now.

P5

They live in a small village, where villagers are very warm.

P6

They had a lovely childhood. But the love had been given too much from their parents.

P7

Time flew. Now three pigs have graduated. Bobby graduated from university and found a great job successfully in one month.

P8

Toby only graduated from senior high so he just got a job with a low salary.

P9

And Abby just lay on the sofa all day. He didn't finish his high school education and didn't want to find a job for a living.

P10

He just played online games every day; his parents couldn't bear this anymore and one day they kicked him out of the house.

P11

During this story, we can learn that relying on parents doesn't fix everything. Growing up means taking care of yourself. The smartest and most practical way is to study hard for a good job in the future.
