Little Black Riding Hood:

Unveiling
the Dark Side of Society

Thoughts

In fact, when I was filling out my application form, I placed this class in my eighth choice. Yeah, you read that right, it's the eighth choice. Maybe you'll think, "How could you be so unlucky?" At first, I thought the same.

However, after hearing that we were to adapt fairy tales, I decided to give it a try. I think I like... no, but at least I don't dislike this class now.

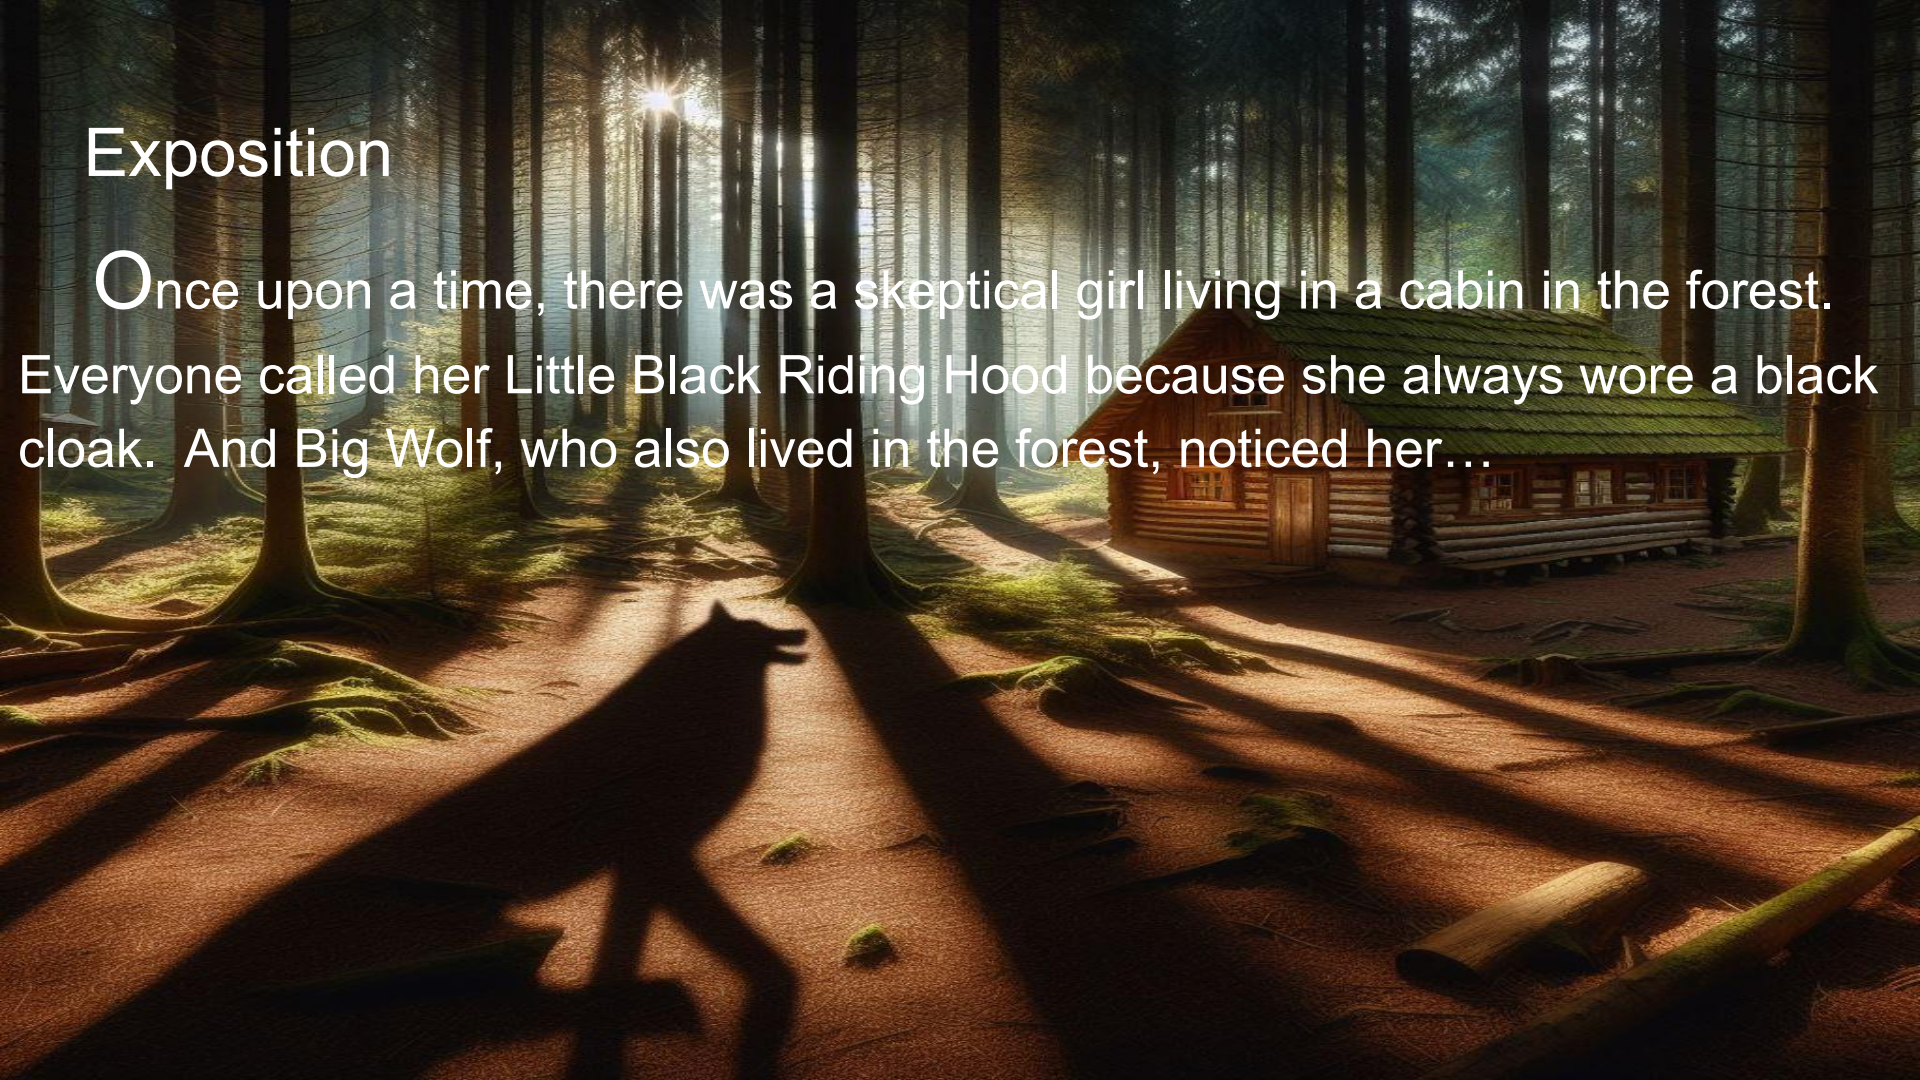

Oh, by the way, I think creating images with AI is super fun. You should try it.

Exposition

Once upon a time, there was a skeptical girl living in a cabin in the forest. Everyone called her Little Black Riding Hood because she always wore a black cloak. And Big Wolf, who also lived in the forest, noticed her...

One day, Grandma called Little Black. Grandma had been sick for a week, so Little Black wanted to bring her some fruits. On the way to Grandma's house, she felt someone was following her all the time.

Little Black(turning back): Oh, Mr. Big Wolf.

Big Wolf: Good morning, Little Black Riding Hood. So, you've already noticed me?

Little Black: Of course, your footsteps are not exactly subtle.

(She thought to herself): Ridiculous, you're so bulky, it's hard not to notice you. I'm so adorable, he shouldn't want to hurt me, right?

Big Wolf: Where are you going?

Little Black(QωQ): I... my grandma has been sick recently.

Big Wolf: I'm sorry to hear that. I hope she feels better soon.

Little Black: Oh you are so~~~ thoughtful.

Then Big Wolf left.

(Little Black thought to herself)(。Д。):
Did he pretend to be familiar with me?
Oh, I must be so cute that he wants to do something bad to me!
I must think of some ways to guard against him.

(She continued her way to her grandma's house.)

(Little Black thought to himself)($p \bar{\tau} \Delta \bar{\tau} p$):
What can I do? Wait, maybe I can take advantage of iWIN, an organization that has recently caused a stir in the animation industry, to deal with this.

(after a while)

Little Black: Hey Big Wolf! Why you are here now? Didn't we just separate? What the heck do you want?!

Big Wolf: I just want to go visit Grandma with you, but I'm afraid she will get scared if she sees me, so I've been secretly following you.

Little Black: I'm not buying this at all. You must be planning to do something weird to me when I'm not paying attention.

Big Wolf: Huh? You get me wrong!

Little Black: I've uncovered your intentions. I have already reported to iWIN you can't escape now.

Big Wolf: Okay, I admit I have another intention, and you should just give up. iWIN only deals with trivial matters like anime; they won't bother with your problem.

Little Black: You finally reveal your true color. I don't believe what you say. Surely they will protect me; after all, I am such a charming "little girl."

Big Wolf: Ha! Huang Zijiao incident has been happening so long, yet they haven't taken any action. Why do you think they will help you? Stop talking nonsense!

After Little Black was knocked out unconsciously, the Big Wolf ripped off Little Black's clothes and took some photos....

Till now, this case is still pending before the court, we should be more concerned about this situation.
